

UNITED STATES ENVIRONMENTAL PROTECTION AGENCY
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20460

INDEX

OFFICE OF
AIR, NOISE, AND RADIATION

DOCKET ONAC 01-82

n-96-01
II-A-987

Forwarded are the following documents that may be requested by persons interested in the Withdrawal of Wheel and Crawler Tractors, and their attendant removal, along with Pavement Breakers and Rock Drills from EPA's list of major noise sources.

Wheel and Crawler Tractors

- (1) 40 F.R. 23105, Major Noise Sources, May 28, 1975
- (2) Noise Emission Standards for Construction Equipment - Proposed Wheel and Crawler Tractor Noise Emission Regulation - Part 1. Draft Environmental Impact Statement; Economic Impact Statement - Part 2. Background Document, EPA/ONAC June 1977
- (3) 42 F.R. 35804, New Wheel and Crawler Tractors, proposed rulemaking July 11, 1977
- (4) "Makers of Construction Gear Altering Strategy to Survive", The Wall Street Journal, October 13, 1981
- (5) National League of Cities, "State and Local Environmental Noise Control: 1980 Survey Report, December 1981
- (6) U.S. EPA, The Status of Noise Control in the United States: State and Local Governments, April 1978
- (7) National Institute of Governmental Purchasing, bg reports, January through December 1981

Pavement Breakers and Rock Drills

- (1) 42 F.R. 6722, Identification of Products as Major Noise Sources: Pavement Breakers and Rock Drills, February 23, 1977

Pavement Breakers/Rock Drills and Wheel & Crawler Tractors

- (1) Succinct Write-Up - Rationale for Withdrawal of Wheel & Crawler Tractors, Pavement Breakers and Rock Drills